Distance – Approx. 2 miles

Time to Complete – 1 Hour

Dog Friendly Walk

Plenty of free parking at or near station

Tenterden is probably best known as one of the Cinque Ports and the starting point of the Kent and East Sussex Railway.

This walk is rather hilly but should not be beyond all but the very unfit. As with most walks in this area it can be very muddy in parts during winter or wet whether.

The start point for this walk is the bottom left hand corner of the Kent and East Sussex Railway car park.

Walk Number T1 – TENTERDEN

Take the footpath in the bottom left hand corner of car park. Continue to kissing gate and go through. Stay left for approximately 50 yards then go through gate on the left.

Walk Number T1 – TENTERDEN

This is a good spot to take photos of the stream trains as they go past. Continue ahead back to the railway signal. Cross track again (take care). Continue to gate and turn right. Continue through kissing gate and return to car park via the footpath.

Note: - Please follow the country code and ensure all gates are left closed and that dogs are kept on leads where farm animals are around.

When walking it is the walkers' responsibility to ensure they stay on public rights of way.
